

Technical Cooperation Council of the Philippines (TCCP)

Established in 1992, Technical Cooperation Council of the Philippines (TCCP) serves as the national focal point for Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC).

Responsibilities

- Formulate and implement a National Technical Cooperation Program in line with Philippine commitments to Technical Cooperation among Developing Countries (TCDC) and to Economic Cooperation Among Developing Countries (ECDC), specifying the guiding policies, areas of concern, linkages with national and international agencies, projects to be undertaken at the sectoral level and the implementing mechanisms and strategies.
- Coordinate all TCDC-related activities participated in by the Philippines, such as international seminars and conferences, technical consultancies, study-visits, exchange programs, etc., and all other projects and activities undertaken by government agencies concerned with technical cooperation among developing countries.
- Formulate and implement the administrative and financial requirements necessary for the effective implementation of the Philippine Technical Cooperation Program
- Administer all funding related to the Philippine Technical Cooperation Program, including the Philippine pledge of US $500,000 made at UNCTAD IV, and such other funds as may be appropriated for TCDC activities.
- Accept and administer grants-in-aid and other financial and technical assistance from international organizations and institutions in support of the National Technical Cooperation Program.
- Submit a yearly report on its activities to the President.

Institutional structure

Note:

The TCCP is an inter-agency Council and has a Director-General (aka Chair-Alternate) who heads its Secretariat. The Chair-Alternate/DG also sits as the alternate to the Secretary for Foreign Affairs on policy matters.
